Recharge Your Batteries in More Ways than One:
AT Offers Patio Service and Electric Car Charging

Electric Vehicle owners in the Auburn area can sit down and charge up this spring at AT!

The restaurant, located inside The Hotel at Auburn University, boasts the only electric vehicle charging station on campus and one of only a handful in the Auburn-Opelika area.

Restaurant and hotel guests can enjoy dinner at AT or cocktails on the patio while one of two stations recharges their electric vehicles. The stations charge a wide variety of electric vehicles, including the Tesla, the Chevy Volt and the Nissan Leaf.

“Electric vehicles are becoming more and more prevalent in our community,” said Hans van der Reijden, The Hotel at Auburn University Managing Director, “but finding a charging station can be a challenge. We want to make sure everyone is aware that not only can you charge your electric vehicle at AT, you can enjoy a great meal or beverage while you wait.”

The Hotel is proud to support this green technology, which reduces vehicle emissions and has a positive impact on our environment.

Auburn University and a diverse array of cultural and entertainment attractions. Whether in town for the big game, a special party, or a productive business meeting, the hotel’s 236 guestrooms and suites offer true Southern hospitality in an ideal setting. For a southern twist on Italian, visit A•T, located inside the hotel. An open kitchen and outdoor patio seating add character to this restaurant, which serves breakfast, lunch, dinner, cocktails, Sunday Brunch and offers take-out service. A•T features an espresso bar and unique wine list, and has a private dining room for special events. Located in A•T, Piccolo is Auburn's only true lounge experience for specialty cocktails and a large variety of appetizers and desserts. The menu features a variety of small plates perfect for sharing, refreshing cocktails, and piccolo bottles of champagne. Live jazz performances take place on Fridays and Saturdays (except on home football game weekends). The property is owned by Auburn University and managed by the Atlanta-based Capella Hotel Group.
